BEST PRACTICE - I

Session: 2021-2022

Title of the Practice I: Certificate Courses on Experiential and Constructivist Learning.

Objective: Generate and enhance the learners' skill in different fields aiming at self employment and expand the core conceptual areas in the study of humanities.

The context: The skill enhancement opportunities inherent in the course content will aid and motivate the learners' vocational orientation and the act of learning by doing.

The Practice: A department has to submit a proposal to introduce a certificate course at the academic committee and after receiving approval, the department can introduce it. The classes are allotted centrally by the IQAC and one certificate course is allotted to each 1st year student at the time of their admission.

Evidence of Success: Most of the departments have introduced certificate courses and gives the test and flavor of experiential learning among the students and it will expand their understandings of different concepts of different subject domain.

BEST PRACTICE – II

Session: 2021-2022

Title of the Practice II: Deliberation on E-Facilities.

Aims: To facilitate e-facilities in teaching learning process and in addressing grievances.

Context: Provision of e-facilities to make the teaching learning environment more attractive and interesting and reduction of the gap between the administration and students to craft the institution as more students friendly.

Practice: After installation of the Online Education module, all the faculties take online classes (as complementary to the face-to-face classroom interaction), provide study materials, assigned home assignments and collect the same, provide video tutorials through the module. The authority can monitor and keep the records of online classes and attendance of students. Mentor-Mentee meetings and Parent-Teacher meet are also organized in online mode. Simultaneously, the GRC module is also installed for submission of grievances, issues related to Anti Ragging, Sexual Harassment, etc. through online mode and addressed those issues by the concerned committee within a stipulated time.

Evidence of Success: Online classes are successfully conducted, assignments are effectively assigned and students submit their home assignments accordingly, students raised different issues faced by them and addressed accordingly.
