Action Taken Report on Analysis of Student Satisfaction Survey Report for the session 2021-22

After analyzing and discussing the students satisfaction Survey Report the college authority in consultation with IQAC and different stakeholders has taken the following steps or actions in order to solve the different issues raised by students of the college.

1. Necessary arrangements are taken by the authority for addressing the issues raised by the students regarding the toilet facilities, drinking water facilities and canteen facilities immediately.
2. The college has organized different programmes and encouraged the students to participate in events outside the college also to promote extracurricular activities among the students.
3. Instructions were circulated among the faculty members to provide teaching learning materials to the students through the college portal.
4. Formal instructions were circulated to all the faculties of the institute by the authority for promoting students centric methodology and experiential teaching learning among the students.
