CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATION, 2023-24

THEME: FOR EVERY CHILD, EQUAL RIGHT

To commemorate Children's Day 2023-24, the Women Cell of Dr. B.K.B. College, in collaboration with the NSS Unit, organized a vibrant Sports Competition at Gopinath Dev Goswami Primary School, located in Borchungjhar Model Village, the adopted village of the college. The event, held on 14th November 2023, started at 11:00 AM and was attended by 80 participants, consisting of students from the school, faculty members from the college, and other community members. The event was a part of the nationwide Children's Day celebration under the theme "For Every Child, Equal Right".

The event aimed to celebrate childhood and promote the message of equal rights for all children while also encouraging physical fitness, teamwork, and the spirit of healthy competition.

The event kicked off with an inaugural speech by Debita Kemprai, Secretary of the Women Cell, who emphasized the importance of celebrating Children's Day and providing equal opportunities for all children, especially in rural areas. She highlighted the college's commitment to contributing to the overall development of the adopted village and the children within it.

Following the speech, the Head Master of Gopinath Dev Goswami Primary School delivered a welcome address, expressing his gratitude to the Women Cell and NSS Unit of Dr. B.K.B. College for organizing the event and for their continued support in the development of the school and the village.

Sports Competition:

The sports competition featured several exciting events that captivated the students and the audience. The events included:

1. 100 Meters Race: A classic test of speed and agility, this race was fiercely contested by the students.
2. Pukhuri Paar (Crossing the Pond): This traditional event tested the participants' balance and coordination.
3. Dance Competition: Children showcased their talent through energetic and colorful performances.

4. Quiz Competition: A fun-filled quiz that challenged students on various general knowledge topics.

These competitions were designed not only to promote physical fitness but also to engage students in creative and intellectual activities.

Prize Distribution and Donations:

After the competitions concluded, the prize distribution ceremony took place. Mrs. Biju Borah, President of the Women Cell, distributed prizes to the winning participants, encouraging them to continue nurturing their talents. The event also witnessed the distribution of various prizes for participants who performed exceptionally well in the competitions.

As part of the event's philanthropic efforts, the Women Cell donated an iron bookshelf to the school to help improve its infrastructure. This thoughtful gesture was well-received by the school administration and students.

Support from NSS Unit and College Faculty:

The NSS candidates played a crucial role in managing the event. They assisted in running the competition smoothly, ensuring the safety of the participants and the timely conduction of each event. Faculty members from Dr. B.K.B. College also participated in the event and contributed to the success of the prize distribution process.

Conclusion:

The Children's Day celebration in Borchungjhar Model Village was a grand success, thanks to the enthusiastic participation of the students, the collaborative efforts of the Women Cell, NSS Unit, and the support of Dr. B.K.B. College. The sports competitions, the donation to the school, and the encouragement of children's rights were central to the event's objective of fostering an inclusive and supportive environment for every child.

The event concluded with a sense of accomplishment and joy, leaving behind lasting memories for the children and further strengthening the bond between Dr. B.K.B. College and the adopted village.
