The Women Cell of Dr. B.K.B. College, Puranigudam, Assam, organized a significant Audio-Visual Lecture on the occasion of International Women's Day 2024. The program was held on the 9th of March, 2024, at 11:00 AM in the college's Computer Lab. With the theme of "Inspire Inclusion," the lecture focused on the topic, "Representation of Women in Cinema."

The session began with an introductory note from the Secretary of the Women Cell, Debita Kemprai, who welcomed the resource person, Indranil Gayan, and briefly introduced the topic and its relevance in today's world. Inaugural speech was delivered by Dr.Nripen ch. Das, Principal, Dr. B.K.B. College. The audience, consisting of 50 students, faculty, and guests, were eager to engage with the subject matter.

Indranil Gayan, a renowned poet, filmmaker, and translator from Nagaon, Assam, delivered an engaging and thought-provoking lecture. He began by emphasizing the significant role cinema plays in shaping public perceptions and beliefs about women in Assamese Cinema. Through an insightful exploration of various films, Gayan illustrated how women have historically been represented, often through. The lecture was accompanied by relevant audiovisual clips, which made the discussion even more impactful. Clips from landmark films that depict women in various roles—from traditional to modern, passive to powerful—were shown, followed by detailed discussions on each limiting and stereotypical lenses.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks, where the secretary acknowledged the valuable contribution of Indranil Gayan in shedding light on the essential issue of women's representation in cinema. The audience left with a renewed perspective on the role cinema plays in shaping gender roles and the importance of striving for inclusivity and equity in media.

Next, Wall Magazine 'SROTOSSWINEE' was inaugurated by Mrs.Anurupa Bora, Associate Professor, and Department of History on the occasion of INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY, 2023-2024
